GUEST

David Abankwah

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

-Revelation 3:20 | KJV

How will you feel if you wake up one beautiful morning on one of your days off and hear your door being banged upon and to your surprise, your role mode whom you have always wanted to meet in person, show his or her face? I don't know the kind of excitement it will bring to you that day even though you will be disappointed this celebrity didn't notify you before coming.

There is one particular person who is bigger, greater, beautiful, splendidous, amazing, powerful than any role model or celebrity you know. He is in the person of Jesus Christ. He is the seen glory of the invisible Father and the invisible Spirit of God. He is the embodiment of the unseen Godhead, the perfect God who walked upon the face of the earth without sinning.

He became our guest by visiting us on earth from heaven. He socialised with us through preaching, teaching and all kinds of miracles to depict His love for us. He constantly had time for the rich, the poor, the intellect, the dull, the small and the great. All through His life, the lives of these categories of people were touched by those who welcomed Him and those who despised His visit.

He concluded His visit on earth by dying and rising up triumphantly on the third day of His death. He ascended into heaven and He is seated on the right hand of the Invisible Ancient of Days. His visit is still in effect because He is constantly knocking at the back of our hearts and minds through the Word of God and through the Holy Spirit. This is because, He is the Word of God and His words are Spirit. Will you open the door of your heart for Him to come in or will you call the police for His intrusion?

Stay Blessed
